OBSERVATIONS AND HISTORY

History:	This vehicle has always been used from the beginning (1966) till 1998 by the Swiss Army department AM Depot Bellinzona and was in service by the Arsenale Monte Ceneri as a SE-222 Telecomunication/transmission vehicle. Till 1998 the VW T1 has been driven int the Monte Ceneri neighborhood and the tacho reported originally KM 28’642.
Owners:	Since 1998, the T1 has had 3 more owners but after partial and unfinished restorations has not been registered anymore. In September 2018 the actual owner acquired the T1 and after a conservative restoration the VW has been immatriculated for the first time after 20+ years in June 2020 as oldtimer.
Restoration:	The restoration took about 1 year. All has been checked and restored. All the metal sheet/parts and pieces were/are original to the vehicle as confirmed from the old photographic documentation. The vehicle has been repainted in dove blue which is an original color used for the combi version from August 1964 to July 1967 as well as the very first T1 dated back 1950. This decision came after a valuation and due to the fact that it was no more possible to restore the vehicle with the original army equippement. The engine and transmission have been overhauled and the stand/usury of the components confirmed the original reported mileage.
Matching Numbers:	Engine and transmission are matching according to the documentation available with the vehicle and the VW Classic certificates. Original documents, technical documentation and exhaustive restoration’s book are available.
